Select Poetry.

DON'T DRINK TO-NIGHT

I left my mother in the door,
My sister by her side;
Their clasped hands and loving looks
Forbade their doubts to hide.
I left and met with comrades gay,
When the moon brought out her light,
And my loving mother whispered me,
"Don't drink, my boy, to-night."

Long years have rolled away since then;
My jetty curls are gray;
But, oh! those words are with me yet,
And will not pass away.
I see my mother's loving face,
With goodness, radiant, bright,
And hear her words ring in my ears,
"Don't drink, my boy, to-night."

My mother is now resting sweet
In the graveyard on the hill;
But mother's words come back to me,
And haunt my memory still.
I've often, often passed the cup;
Oh! then my heart was right,
Because I heard the warning words,
"Don't drink, my boy, to-night."

I've now passed down the road of life,
And soon my race is run,
A mother's warning listened to,
An immortal crown is won.
Oh, mothers, with your blessed smile,
Look on your boys so bright,
And say as you alone can say
"My boy, don't drink to-night."

These words will prove a warning when
In the thorny paths of life,
Thy boy is in the tempter's wiles,
And warring in the strife.
Those words will stop the morning cup,
And the revelry at night,
By whispering back a mother's voice,
"Don't drink, my boy, to-night."

The Drunkard's Defence.

BY ONE WHO KNOWS.

It is with feelings of exquisite pleasure that I hail another friend of fallen humanity. Your correspondent, "Reformation," speaks with the true Gospel ring. The man who truly loves the Lord Jesus, will as truly love his brother man. And the professing disciple of Christ who does not love his fellow man, gives certain evidence to all men that he does not love the Lord. "By their fruits ye shall know them." As it was in the days of the public ministry of the Lord Jesus when he declared to the Jews, that, "it is written, my house is the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves," even it is now.

Selfishness, and the love of money have been taken into the sanctuary, and love to God, and good will to men has been crowded out. Until reformation begins at the house of God, the curse of drunkenness, as a funeral pall, will continue to cover the land. It is said that one of the ministers of Bellefonte, requires the new members whom he admits to sealing ordinances, to abjure intemperance, so far, this is well; but it is also said that some of the officers of that congregation, have competed, at the County Fair, for the premium on the best article of domestic wine! If competitors, then users; or in the ordinary acceptation of the term moderate drinkers. If then the officers of a congregation be moderate drinkers, the membership are likely to be both moderate and immoderate drinkers, or drunkards: And if intemperance has crept into the membership of the church, unrebuked, and almost, it would seem, with allowance, how are we to induce men to believe that there is danger in the cup? How induce them to believe that to use it, is moral and spiritual, as well as, physical death? Members of Christ's church, will you not for the sake of suffering humanity, for the sake of perishing souls, for the sake of the Lord Jesus, deny yourselves the sinful selfishness that encourages, or permits, a brother to fall, without stretching out the hand to save him? Will you not try to get up such a pure feeling of temperance and benevolence, in the church, that drunkards shall cease to quote you as their high authority for the use of intoxicating liquors?

In the commencement of these articles I said that I did not intend to be personal in any remarks that I might make, tending to show why others than drunkards are to blame for drunkenness, nor do I now propose to vary from the line then laid down, even though I feel it my duty to say for encouragement of others, that there is one man in our Borough, who is not ashamed or afraid to love the drunkard; to talk to the drunkard; to pray with the drunkard; to tell the drunkard that there is help; that God can make his grace sufficient for him. One man outside of the ministry, and one alone, who follows the reformed inebriate with his counsel and his prayers; one man who asks him to go to the social prayer meeting; one who encourages him to go to the house of God on the Sabbath; one man who encourages him to be diligent in business lest temptation come; one man who really loves his God and tries to benefit some of his fallen race. Let us bless the Lord that there is one such man, though he stand alone, even as righteous Lot stood, in Sodom, and let us also be thankful that one other voice has been raised for scriptural temperance. May others still follow till the children of the Bridegroom shall awake and trim their lamps, that their light may be seen of others,, even of them that are ready to perish.

AN EDITOR PLAYS BASE BALL.

The delightful and tender game of base ball having broken out with fresh violence this season, the following sketch is in order. The doctor said we needed exercise. Doctor knows. He told us to join base ball; we joined. Bought a book of instruction, and for five days studied it wisely, if not too well. Then we bought a sugar-scoop cap, and a red belt, a green shirt, yellow trowsers, pumpkin-colored shoes, a paper collar and a purple necktie, and with a lot of other delegates, moved gently to the ground. There were two nines. These nines were antagonists. The ball is a pretty little drop of softness, size of a goose egg, and five degrees harder than a rock.—The two nines play against each other. It is a quiet game, very much like chess, only a little more chase than chess.—There was an umpire. His position was a hard one. He sits on a box and yells "foul." His duty is severe.

I took the bat. It was a murderous plaything, descended from Pochahontas to the head of John Smith. The man in front of me was a pitcher. He was a nice pitcher, but he sent the balls hot.—The man behind me was a catcher. He caught it, too. Umpire said "play." It is the most radical play that I know of, this base ball. Sawing cordwood is moonlight rambles beside base ball.—So the pitcher sent a ball to me. It looked pretty coming, so I let it come. Then he sent another. I hit it with the club and hove it gently upward. Then I started to walk toward the first base. The ball lit in the pitcher's hands, and somebody said he caught a fly! Alas, poor fly! I walked leisurely toward the base. Another man took the bat. I turned to see how he was making it, and a mule kicked me on the cheek. The man said it was the ball. It felt like a mule, and I reposed on the grass. The ball went on. Pretty soon there were two more flies, and three of us flew out. Then the other nine came in and us nine went out. This was better. Just as I was standing on my dignity in the left field a hot ball, as they call it, came skyrocketing towards me. My captain yelled, "take it." I hastened gently forward to where the ball was aiming to descend.—I have a good eye to measure distances, and I saw at a glance where the little aerolite was to light. I put up my hands. How sweetly the ball descended! Everybody looked; I felt something warm in my eye. "Muffin," yelled ninety fellows; "Muffin be d—d! It's a cannon ball!" For three days I've had three pounds of raw beef on that eye, and yet it paineth.

Then I wanted to go home, but my gentle captain said "nay." So I nayed and stayed. Pretty soon it was my strike. "To bat," yelled the umpire. I went, but not all serene, as was my won't. The pitcher sent in one hip high. It struck me in the gullet. "Foul," yelled the umpire. He sent in the ball again. This time I took it square, and sent it down the right field, through a parlor window, a kerosene lamp, and rip up against the head of an infant, who was quietly taking its nap in its mother's arms. Then I slung the bat, I had with fined ten cents. The game went on.—I liked it. It is so much fun to run from base to base just in time to be put out, or to chase a ball three-fourths of a mile down hill, while all the spectators yell "Muffin!" "go it!," "home run!" "go round again!" or go round again!" or go round a dozen times. Base ball is a sweet little game. When it came my turn to bat again, I noticed everybody moved back about ten rods. The new umpire retreated twelve rods. He was timid. The pitcher sent them in hot.—Hot balls in time of war are good. But I don't like 'em too hot for fun. After a while I got a fair clip at it, and you bet it went cutting the daises down the right field. A fat man and dog sat in the shade of an oak enjoying the game. The ball broke one leg of the dog, and landed like a runaway engine in the corporation of the fat man. He was taken home to die. Then I went on a double quick to the field, and tried to stop a hot ball. It came toward me from the bat at the rate of nine miles a minute.—I put up my hands—the ball went singing on its way with all the skin from my hands with it. More raw beef. That was an eventful chap who first invented base ball. It's such fun. I've played five games, and this is the result: Twenty-seven dollars paid out for different things. One bunged eye. One broken finger. One bump on the head. Nineteen lame backs. A sore jaw. One thumb discolated. Three sprained ankles. Five swelled legs. One discolated shoulder from throwing the ball a thousand yards. Two hands raw from trying to stop hot balls. A lump the size of a hornet's nest on left hip, well back. A nose quite sweetly jammed, and five uniforms spoiled from rolling in the dirt at the bases.

I have played two weeks, and don't think I like the game. I've looked over the scorer's book, and find I've broken several bats, made one tally, broken one umpire's jaw, broken ten windows in adjoining houses, killed a baby, broke the leg of a dog, mortally injured the bread basket of a spectator; knocked five other players out of time by slinging my bat, and knocked the water-fall from a school marm who was standing twenty rods from the field.

I've used up fifteen dozen bottles of arnica liniment, five bottles of lotions, half a raw beef, and am so full of pain, that it seems as if my limbs were but broken bats and my legs the limbs of a dead horse chestnut.

A MOTHER'S SORROW.

A company of ladies, assembled in a parlor, were one day talking about their different tro ubles. Each one had had something to say about her own trials.—But there was one in the company, pale and sad-looking, who for awhile said nothing. Suddenly rousing herself at last, she said,

"My friends, you don't any of you know what trouble is."

"Will you please, Mrs. Gray," said the kind voice of one who kn

Select Poetry.

DON'T DRINK TO-NIGHT

I left my mother in the door,
My sister by her side;
Their clasped hands and loving looks
Forbade their doubts to hide,
I left and met with comrades gay,
When the moon brought out her light,
And my loving mother whispered me,
"Don't drink, my boy, to-night."

Long years have rolled away since then;
My jetty curls are gray;
But, oh! those words are with me yet,
And will not pass away.
I see my mother's loving face,
With goodness, radiant, bright,
And hear her words ring in my ears,
"Don't drink, my boy, to-night."

My mother is now resting sweet
In the graveyard on the hill;
But mother's words come back to me,
And haunt my memory still.
I've often, often passed the cup;
Oh! then my heart was right,
Because I heard the warning words,
"Don't drink, my boy, to-night."

I've now passed down the road of life,
And soon my race is run,
A mother's warning listened to,
An immortal crown is won.
Oh, mothers, with your blessed smile,
Look on your boys so bright,
And say as you alone can say
"My boy, don't drink to-night."

These words will prove a warning when
In the thorny paths of life,
Thy boy is in the tempter's wiles,
And warring in the strife.
These words will stop the morning cup,
And the revelry at night,
By whispering back a mother's voice,
"Don't drink, my boy, to-night."

Correspondence.

For the REPUBLICAN.

The Drunkard's Defence.

BY ONE WHO KNOWS.

It is with feelings of exquisite pleasure that I hail another friend of fallen humanity. Your correspondent, "Reformation," speaks with the true Gospel ring. The man who truly loves the Lord Jesus, will as truly love his brother man. And the professing disciple of Christ who does not love his fellow man, gives certain evidence to all men that he does not love the Lord. "By their fruits ye shall know them." As it was in the days of the public ministry of the Lord Jesus when he declared to the Jews, that, "it is written, my house is the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves," even it is now.

Selfishness, and the love of money have been taken into the sanctuary, and love to God, and good will to men has been crowded out. Until reformation begins at the house of God, the curse of drunkenness, as a funeral pall, will continue to cover the land. It is said that one of the ministers of Bellefonte, requires the new members whom he admits to sealing ordinances, to abjure intemperance, so far, this is well: but it is also said that some of the officers of that congregation, have competed, at the County Fair, for the premium on the best article of domestic wine! If competitors, then users; or in the ordinary acceptation of the term moderate drinkers. If then the officers of a congregation be moderate drinkers, the membership are likely to be both moderate and immoderate drinkers, or drunkards: And if intemperance has crept into the membership of the church, unrebuked, and almost, it would seem, with allowance, how are we to induce men to believe that there is danger in the cup? How induce them to believe that to use it, is moral and spiritual, as well as, physical death? Members of Christ's church, will you not for the sake of suffering humanity, for the sake of perishing souls, for the sake of the Lord Jesus, deny yourselves the sinful selfishness that encourages, or permits, a brother to fall, without stretching out the hand to save him? Will you not try to get up such a pure feeling of temperance and benevolence, in the church, that drunkards shall cease to quote you as their high authority for the use of intoxicating liquors?

In the commencement of these articles I said that I did not intend to be personal in any remarks that I might make, tending to show why others than drunkards are to blame for drunkenness, nor do I now propose to vary from the line then laid down, even though I feel it my duty to say for encouragement of others, that there is one man in our Borough, who is not ashamed or afraid to love the drunkard; to talk to the drunkard; to pray with the drunkard; to tell the drunkard that there is help; that God can make his grace sufficient for him. One man outside of the ministry, and one alone, who follows the reformed inebriate with his counsel and his prayers; one man who asks him to go to the social prayer meeting; one who encourages him to go to the house of God on the Sabbath; one man who encourages him to be diligent in business lest temptation come; one man who really loves his God and tries to benefit some of his fallen race. Let us bless the Lord that there is one such man, though he stand alone, even as righteous Lot stood, in Sodom, and let us also be thankful that one other voice has been raised for scriptural temperance. May others still follow till the children of the Bridegroom shall awake and trim their lamps, that their light may be seen of others,, even of them that are ready to perish.

AN EDITOR PLAYS BASE BALL.

The delightful and tender game of base ball having broken out with fresh violence this season, the following sketch is in order. The doctor said we needed exercise. Doctor knows. He told us to join base ball; we joined. Bought a book of instruction, and for five days studied it wisely, if not too well. Then we bought a sugar-scoop cap, and a red belt, a green shirt, yellow trowsers, pumpkin-colored shoes, a paper collar and a purple necktie, and with a lot of other delegates, moved gently to the ground. There were two nines. These nines were antagonists. The ball is a pretty little drop of softness, size of a goose egg, and five degrees harder than a rock.—The two nines play against each other. It is a quiet game, very much like chess, only a little more chase than chess.—There was an umpire. His position was a hard one. He sits on a box and yells "foul." His duty is severe.

I took the bat. It was a murderous plaything, descended from Pochahontas to the head of John Smith. The man in front of me was a pitcher. He was a nice pitcher, but he sent the balls hot.—The man behind me was a catcher. He caught it, too. Umpire said "play." It is the most radical play that I know of, this base ball. Sawing cordwood is moonlight rambles beside base ball.—So the pitcher sent a ball to me. It looked pretty coming, so I let it come. Then he sent another. I hit it with the club and hove it gently upward. Then I started to walk toward the first base. The ball lit in the pitcher's hands, and somebody said he caught a fly! Alas, poor fly! I walked leisurely toward the base. Another man took the bat. I turned to see how he was making it, and a mule kicked me on the cheek. The man said it was the ball. It felt like a mule, and I reposed on the grass. The ball went on. Pretty soon there were two more flies, and three of us flew out. Then the other nine came in and us nine went out. This was better. Just as I was standing on my dignity in the left field a hot ball, as they call it, came skyrocketing towards me. My captain yelled, "take it." I hastened gently forward to where the ball was aiming to descend.—I have a good eye to measure distances, and I saw at a glance where the little ærolite was to light. I put up my hands. How sweetly the ball descended! Everybody looked; I felt something warm in my eye. "Muffin," yelled ninety fellows; "Muffin be d—d! It's a cannon ball!" For three days I've had three pounds of raw beef on that eye, and yet it paineth.

Then I wanted to go home, but my gentle captain said "nay." So I nayed and stayed. Pretty soon it was my strike. "To bat," yelled the umpire. I went, but not all serene, as was my won't. The pitcher sent in one hip high. It struck me in the gullet. "Foul," yelled the umpire. He sent in the ball again. This time I took it square, and sent it down the right field, through a parlor window, a kerosene lamp, and rip up against the head of an infant, who was quietly taking its nap in its mother's arms. Then I slung the bat, I had with it broken the jaw of the umpire, and was fined ten cents. The game went on.—I liked it. It is so much fun to run from base to base just in time to be put out, or to chase a ball three-fourths of a mile down hill, while all the spectators yell "Muffin!" "go it!," "home run!" "go round again!" or go round again?" otrgo round a dozen times. Base ball is a sweet little game. When it came my turn to bat again, I noticed everybody moved back about ten rods. The new umpire retreated twelve rods. He was timid. The pitcher sent them in hot.—Hot balls in time of war are good. But I don't like 'em too hot for fun. After a while I got a fair clip at it, and you bet it went cutting the daises down the right field. A fat man and dog sat in the shade of an oak enjoying the game. The ball broke one leg of the dog, and landed like a runaway engine in the corporation of the fat man. He was taken home to die. Then I went on a double quick to the field, and tried to stop a hot ball. It came toward me from the bat at the rate of nine miles a minute.—I put up my hands—the ball went singing on its way with all the skin from my hands with it. More raw beef. That was an eventful chap who first invented base ball. It's such fun. I've played five games, and this is the result: Twenty-seven dollars paid out for different things. One bunged eye. One broken finger. One bump on the head. Nineteen lame backs. A sore jaw. One thumb discolated. Three sprained ankles. Five swelled legs. One discolated shoulder from throwing the ball a thousand yards. Two hands raw from trying to stop hot balls. A lump the size of a hornet's nest on left hip, well back. A nose quite sweetly jammed, and five uniforms spoiled from rolling in the dirt at the bases.

I have played two weeks, and don't think I like the game. I've looked over the scorer's book, and find I've broken several bats, made one tally, broken one umpire's jaw, broken ten windows in adjoining houses, killed a baby, broke the leg of a dog, mortally injured the bread basket of a spectator; knocked five other players out of time by slinging my bat, and knocked the water-fall from a school marm who was standing twenty rods from the field.

I've used up fifteen dozen bottles of arnica liniment, five bottles of lotions, half a raw beef, and am so full of pain, that it seems as if my limbs were but broken bats and my legs the limbs of a dead horse chestnut.

A MOTHER'S SORROW.

A company of ladies, assembled in a parlor, were one day talking about their different troubles. Each one had had something to say about her own trials.—But there was one in the company, pale and sad-looking, who for awhile said nothing. Suddenly rousing herself at last, she said,

THE STATE TREASURYSHIP—GEO. F. HUFF, ESQ.

The time for the meeting of the Legislature of Pennsylvania will soon be here, and with it the responsibility of electing a good and true man to fill the office of State Treasury. The disgraceful conduct of our solons at Harrisburg, last winter, and the quarrel between Mr. Mackey and Irwin, for this position will not soon be forgotten by the people of the State. The action of the Republican caucus or convention and its regularly nominated candidate, was set at naught and the usages of the party disregarded by quite a number of the Republican members.

The lesson of last winter should not be lost upon the members of the next Legislature, and the true friends of Republican principles should now most fully determine that the scenes, blunders, quarrels and treacheries of last winter, should not again be enacted in Harrisburg.

Mr. Mackey and Gen. Irwin may both be good men, and from all we can learn, competent, efficient and obliging officers, but we believe there are other men who can be found to fill that office equally welland whowhen nominated will bring success and victory.

We do not believe that Mr. Mackey could be elected if he should receive the party nomination, and we have not faith to believe that Gen. Irwin after the course pursued by him last winter would ask or even seek a nomination at the hands of the Republican party. The death of Senator Watt leaves the Senate a tie and the Legislature Republican by 12 votes. What then, is the lesson, the duty of the hour? What the duty of Mr. Mackey who has heretofore been well served by his party? And what would wisdom dictate as the proper course to be pursued by General Irwin?

There is but one course to pursue—One proper course we mean. Mr. Mackey should at once inform his friends that he is not a candidate and his friends should, thereupon, cease to urge him. If he remain in the contest, of course, the old struggle of last winter will be re-enacted, with Gen. Irwin as an independent candidate against him. We learn that Gen. Irwin does not expect a nomination from the Republicans.

We must have the State Treasurer this time. If we cannot elect our nominees when holdinga majority, what reason can be given for keeping up our organization? We appeal to Hon. Simon Cameron and Hon. John Scott, United States Senators, and therefore acknowledged leaders of the Republican party, to use all their influence to prevent the disorganizing scenes oflast winter from being re-enacted. We appeal, earnestly appeal to the Republican members of the next Legislature, honorable men as they are, to lose sight of men, pets, associates, and look only to the good of the party and the triumph of its glorious principles.

We implore you therefore, to choose a new man. A man fresh from the people. Do this and all will be well.

On the 24th day of November last, we announced the name of Geo. F. Huff, Esq., of Greensburg, as our choice for the State Treasurship. We believe ours, was the first paper in the State to mention his name. We urged him as a compromise candidate between the Mackey and Irwin factions, and time has proven the wisdom of our suggestions.

We again urge the claims of Mr. Huff. We repeat what we then said that Mr. Huff is not an office seeker; but he is a first class man, a successful Banker and an excellent financier—a man of undoubted integrity; standing in his own community, and in all circles in which he moves, above suspicion. He has always been a most decided Republican, believing conscientiously in the great and glorious principles of that organization. To the Republican members of the Legislature, to Senators Cameron and Scott and other leaders of the party we say, work for Mr. Huff. Select him as the nominee of our party, and then use your influece for his election. Do this and the disgrace of last winter will be cancelled, and the people will say "well done good and faithful servants."

There is so much truth in the following, taken from the Pottsville Journal, that we publish it in these columns for our local readers: "It is easy to be nobody, and we will tell you how to do it. Go to the drinking saloon and spend your leisure time. You need not drink much now; just a little beer or some other drink. In the meantime, play dominoes, checkers, or something else to kill time, so that you will be sure not to read some useful book. If you read, let it be the dime novels of the day.—Thus keep on getting your stomach full and your head empty, and yourself playing the time-killing games, and in a few years you'll be nobody, unless as is quite likely you should turn out a drunkard, or professional gambler, either of which is worse than nobody. There are any number of young men hanging about saloons, billiard rooms, and other rum shops, just ready to graduate and be nobodies.

The Altoona Sun (Democratic) thus endorses George F. Huff, one of the Republican candidates for State Treasurer: "It always affords us pleasure to agree with our neighbors, and when we can agree with an adversary pleasure is turned to gladness. An instance of this sort is afforded in the notice of the above named gentleman by our neighbor of the Tribune. If a Republican is to manage the finances of the State the next year, Mr. Huff is our choice. We were for him last year, and think he should have rolled up his sleeves and gone into the contest in real earnest. Not having done so we fear his chance is not so good now as it was then."

The Manchester papers describe a new instrument of torture which has been set up at several of the works in that city, and is intended to arouse the workmen from their slumbers. This "American Devil" is set to work at half past five every morning, and it wakes up everybody within two miles.

"American devil" is known to its friends as the "steam gong."

The Elections!

Pennsylvania Republican by Nearly 5,000.

Republicans Triumphant!

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT ENDORSED BY THE PEOPLE.

Grant's Administration Fully Sustained!

PROTECTION VINDICATED!

NEW JERSEY REPUBLICAN!

KENTUCKY GONE DEMOCRATIC BY THE SKIN OF HER TEETH!

NEXT YEAR ALL O. K.

WEST VIRGINIA AND MISSOURI.

The Democrats Sold!

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE, UNIVERSAL AMNESTY VICTORIOUS IN THESE STATES.

Glorious Victory for the Republicans!

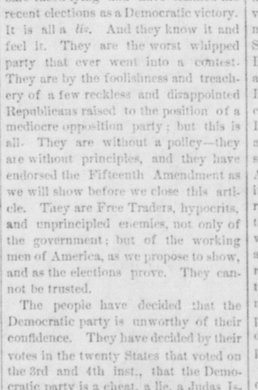
The Next Congress Republican by not Less than 40 Majority.

The Democratic Watchman and other disloyal sheets, throughout the State have been crowing very loudly over Democratic victories; but as usual they have crowed too soon. They howled before they got out of the woods and thus proved that the wish was father to the thought, and that they cannot be relied upon for anything. They rebelled against the Government, and thereby lost the confidence of the people. They feel it. They know it. They realize the fact that the Democratic party, in consequence of its opposition to the war and its disloyal teachings is dead, dead, dead, and politically damned; but nevertheless in accordance with their usual practice, they have resorted to bare-faced lying and have claimed the recent elections as a Democratic victory. It is all a lie. And they know it and feel it. They are the worst whipped party that ever went into a contest. They are by the foolishness and treachery of a few reckless and disappointed Republicans raised to the position of a mediocre opposition party; but this is all. They are without a polley—they are without principles, and they have endorsed the Fifteenth Amendment as we will show before we close this article. They are Free Traders, hypocrits, and unprincipled enemies, not only of the government; but of the working men of America, as we propose to show, and as the elections prove. They cannot be trusted.

The people have decided that the Democratic party is unworthy of their confidence. They have decided by their votes in the twenty States that voted on the 3rd and 4th inst., that the Democratic party is a cheat, a lie, a Judas Iscariot, and they have moreover decided, that no man who has any respect for himself and family will be found fighting with that organization. Every unrepentant rebel is in that party. Every northern man who sympathized with the rebellion is a Democrat. Every British tool and hireling, who is in favor of free trade and the breaking down of American manufactories and the wages of American mechanics and laboring men, belong to this unprincipled, free trade, disloyal, English loving Democratic party.

It was upon these principles they entered the campaign. They refused to ignore their rebellion record. They openly and avowedly declared in favor of free trade. They vigorously, and emphatically denounced the Fifteenth Amendment, and upon these issues they claimed that they would carry the elections and secure a majority in the next Congress. But they failed.

In New Jersey where the Democrats heretofore have carried everything, the Republicans in spite of the Fifteenth Amendment and the free trade opposition have carried the State, have carried everything. Copperheadism is gone up in New Jersey, as the following cut will show:



New Jersey is good for a Republican majority, in 1872. She is sick and tired of Democratic mis-rule. She has declared in favor of the Republican party—the true Jeffersonian Democracy.

ARKANSAS.

Before the war this State was manipulated by the slave holding Democracy. Now, she gives a glorious Republican majority. The Ku Klux were brought out, and every effort made in this state to prevent the people from casting their ballots according to the dictates of their own conscience; nevertheless the Republicans have triumphed and the State is Republican for twenty years to come.

ILLINOIS.

A State the Democrats determined to carry on the cry of free trade, has gone Republican by nearly 40,000 Republican majority on the popular vote. Illinois is all right for 1872.

KANSAS

Rolls up a majority of 18,000 on the State ticket, elects a Republican member of Congress and a Legislature four-fifths Republican. There will be but one Democrat in the Senate and but two counties in the State have gone Democratic. This State the Free Trade League expected to carry for the Democracy.

KENTUCKY

gives a majority of 30,000. One year ago she gave a majority of 90,000. In 1872 the Republican party will carry Kentucky. The Kentucky Republicans made a glorious fight this time and deserve great credit for their pluck.

MICHIGAN

the Democrats gain a member of Congress in the sixth district. The Republicans carry both houses of the Legislature by triumphant majorities. So it is all over the Union. We would like to give each State and the majorities and the gains, therein; but we have not space. We must however call the attention of our readers to the election in MISSOURI.

In this State the Democrats have no party. They are so wicked, disloyal, and treacherous, that they dare not call themselves Democrats. They have no hope of ever carrying anything. They are without character, without organization. They have no name, organization, caste, principle, or prestige in Missouri. In a word, there is no Democratic party in Missouri. In 1866 we spent three months in that State. We were an apt scholar. We learned fast. We saw then, that the people of that State were in favor of Universal Suffrage; Universal Amnesty. Had we gone to Missouri as we intended in the spring of 1865, we would have been in favor, when there, of this great and magnanimous doctrine. Had we been in Missouri this fall we would have been in favor of the Gratz Brown and Carl Schurz ticket. This is our individual opinion. We ask no member of the Republican party to endorse it without he is fully convinced of its soundness.

The Democratic Watchman rejoices over the defeat of Gov. McClurg, Col. John H. Stover and the balance of that ticket in Missouri. McClurg and Stover were defeated because they would not endorse the doctrine of Universal Suffrage and Universal Amnesty. Brown and Schurz endorsed thisdoctrine and won by 40,000 majority. Gratz Brown and Carle Schurz are both Radicals. Brown was a few years ago a Radical U. S. Senator. Schurz is now a Radical U. S. Senator. They are both sound on the doctrine of Protection for American labor. Thus far their majority, their success is a Republican victory. The rebels in Missouri, went with the Brown ticket, simply because they were too weak to run one of their own, and for the purpose of distracting the regular Republican ticket. They did there just what they do here, when in the minority, show that they are without principle and ready to do anything to distract the glorious Republican party.

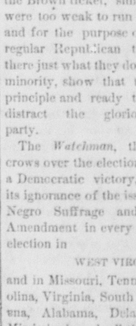
The Watchman, therefore when it crows over the election of Missouri, as a Democratic victory, not only shows its ignorance of the issues; but endorses Negro Suffrage and the Fifteenth Amendment in every particular. The election in and in Missouri, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia, South Carolina, Louisiana, Alabama, Delaware, Maryland, Mississippi and all the other Southern States prove that Horace Greeley was right when he proclaimed five years ago the great doctrine of Universal Suffrage, Universal Amnesty.

The elections in West Virginia and Missouri are not Democratic victories, but an endorsement of the above named doctrine. In Virginia they are called the "Let ups" in Missouri the "Liberals." In other words it is the advance guard of the Republican party—the truly Radical wing of that party. For this reason we have brought out our Coon. The rings on his tail, show the indifferent ring streaked, striped and unprincipled condition of the so-called Democratic party.

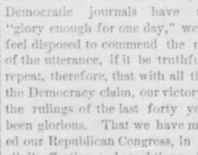
Whenever the Watchman or any other Democratic paper rejoices over the elections in West Virginia or Missouri, they rejoice over the advance guard of the Republican or Radical party. They endorse negro suffrage and fifteenth Amendment, while at the same time they endorse universal Amnesty and thereby admit the justness, righteousness and the loyalty of the Lincoln Administration and of the efforts put forth to crush the slave-holders rebellion.

The Union Soldiers, nine hundred thousand strong in Pennsylvania and other loyal states will bear us out in these assertions.



The Union Soldier cannot see why the private rebel soldier should be disfranchised, when this is the only punishment, which was inflicted upon General Lee, Jeff Davis, John C. Breckinridge and a host of other rebel leaders, whom we might name. These leaders should have been hung. They escaped. Now, why punish the men of the South who were forced into the rebellion, by disfranchisement, or when this is the only punishment inflicted upon the leaders of the rebellion? Herein is food for thought for the great Republican party.

Had this doctrine been adopted by the Republican party in 1868 as it should have been, we would now have a united south, and more than a two thirds majority in Congress. It is not too late yet. The doctrine is just, liberal, right and magnanimous, and by adopting it now, the Republican party secures not only the States of Missouri, West Virginia, Tennessee; but all the other Southern States for the great contest of 1872. The Republican party has a great mission to carry out. It saved the Union. It refused to hang the leaders. Now let it be just to the men who were forced into rebellion. The Democrats dare not endorse the doctrine of Universal Suffrage and Universal Amnesty. This doctrine belongs to the radical wing of the Radical party. Let us adopt it. And the contest for 1872 whether our nominee be General Grant, Gen. Cameron, Ex. Gov. Andrew G. Curtin, General Sherman or any other loyal Statesman or soldier victory glorious victory will be ours.



To corroborate what we have said and to prove that the recent elections have proved to be a glorious Republican victory and a full endorsement of President Grants Administration we copy the following historical facts from the Pittsburgh Gazette. The Gazette, after a faithful review of the results of the election, giving Democrats all they claim, for the sake of the argument, asseris very confidently and as we think truly, "that the Democracy has not within itself, even by its own showing, any strength and that it is weaker than any party that has been organized as one of the two great parties of the Union for the last forty years."

And it makes its assertions good by a plain statement of facts, which every one familiar with the political history of the country from 1832 to the present time will recognize as correct. "Startling," it says, "as far back as 1832, when General Jackson was re-elected, we find that two years afterwards there was a decided Whig gain. In 1836 Van Buren was elected, and in 1838 the Whigs elected their Speaker in the House. In 1840 Harrison was elected, and in 1842 the House was Democratic. In 1844 Polk was elected, and in 1846 Mr. Winthrop, from Massachusetts, was elected Speaker. In 1848 Taylor was elected, and in 1856 the House was Democratic. In 1852 Pierce was elected, and 1854 Banks, from Massachusetts, was elected Speaker. In 1856 Buchanan was elected, and in 1858 Pennington, from New Jersey, was elected Speaker. In 1860 Lincoln was elected, and in 1862 Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut and New Jersey went Democratic. In 1864 Lincoln was re-elected, and in 1866 there was a Congress adverse to the administration. In 1868 Grant was elected, and in 1870 the Congress of the United States, elected the second year after the Presidential election, will, for the first time in forty years, support the Administration. The only time that it ever approximated towards this was during the term of Lincoln. But the fact still remains that at that time the administration and Congress were adverse. This was the year therefore for the Democratic party, if it had any strength to show it, and yet, even with all the aid it gained from bolters, free traders and reformers, it has been utterly unable to accomplish anything, save a few gains in districts where dissensions among the Republicans gave it a chance to steal. If this be, as some Democratic journals have uttered, "glory enough for one day," we surely feel disposed to commend the modesty of the utterance, if it be truthful. We repeat, therefore, that with all the gains the Democracy claim, our victory under the rulings of the last forty years has been glorious. That we have maintained our Republican Congress, in spite of all disaffection and coalitions, is truly wonderful and gives a fair idea of the strength of the Republican party. We are inclined to believe that this so termed "off year" will about settle the question with regard to the power of the Republican party to correct all abuses, within itself, without asking equivocal aid from enemies."

THANKSGIVING.

DEPARTMENT OF SOLDIERS' ORPHANS' SCHOOLS.—Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 15, '70.

To the Principals and Managers of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools and Homes.

GOD in His wisdom and mercy has blessed, during another year, the wise and humane provision Pennsylvania has made for the dependent orphans of the heroic dead. The patient and intelligent labors of those through whose efforts this has been accomplished have thus been successful. Those who have faithfully labored with and for these children thus provided for, have cause for thankfulness in the encouraging results now evident to any candid visitor to these schools.

To these orphans themselves the year has been a propitious one. Their educational progress has been rapid. Morally and physically they have largely improved. Many of them stand, to-day, notwithstanding their poverty, prepared to commence the great battle of life with well improved intellects, clear convictions of moral responsibility, good habits, and a health and vigor of body, that will give them no mean advantage over even more fortunate competitors. During the past year, they have enjoyed almost uninterrupted health, and a freedom from death probably without a parallel. Not a single death occurred in any of the schools from the 20th of May, 1870, till the 15th of October, 1870, a period of nearly five months, out of an average of 3,600 children in the schools, gathered from every section of the State, and subject to the usual diseases of childhood; while the deaths for the entire year are even less than the low rate heretofore reported—one-third of one per cent. annually.

Certainly, children thus cared for and preserved should be taught to, if they do not instinctively, raise their young hearts in thankfulness to the bountiful Giver of All. I therefore recommend THURSDAY, the 24th of NOVEMBER, the day set apart by His Excellency John W. Geary, Governor of the Commonwealth, concurring with the President, as a day of thanksgiving and praise. Principals and managers will suspend school on that day, and employ the usual school hours in such manner as will be best calculated to inculcate a dependence upon God, awaken grateful emotions, and implant pleasant memories in the hearts of these fatherless children.

A report separate from other matters, of the manner in which the day was observed and enjoyed, will be sent with the next monthly report.

GEO. F. M'FARLAND,
Superintendent Soldiers' Orphans.

BURNING COAL MINES.—Near Munch Chunk is a burning coal mine, which has been on fire for several years past. At Brule, near St. Etienne, there is a coal mine which has been on fire from time immemorial. Other burning coal mines, are cited in France, for example, those of Deazeville, Eveyron, and of Commentary, in the department of Alter. In the carboniferous basins of the Saarbruck and Silesia, there are likewise coal mines which have been on fire for a long time. In Belgium, between Namur and Charceri at a place called Falizolle, the fire has been alight for many years.' In the environs of Dudley, England, there was formerly a coal mine on fire. The snow melted in the gardens as soon as it touched the ground. They gathered three crops a year. Even tropical plants were cultivated: and as in the Isle of Calypso, an eternal spring prevailed. In another Staffordshire colliery, the firing of which dates years back, and which is called by the inhabitants "Burning Hill," it was noticed, as at Dudley that the snow melted on reaching the ground, and that the grass in the meadows was always green.

LOCAL ITEMS.

FOR SALE.—A good top-buggy, nearly new. Enquire at this office.

RETURNED.—John P. Mitchell, now a minister of the gospel, has returned from the west to his old home in Howard, where, we are informed, he intends remaining.

HOW IS THIS FOR HIGH?—A female lecturer said, "Get married, young men, and be quick about it. Don't wait for the millenium, for the girls to become angels. You'd look well beside an angel, wouldn't you, you brutes?"

WILTING.—Horace Greely, in his essays on farming, says that the only way to effectually destroy "widow's weeds," which seem to thrive in some kinds of soil, is for the husbandman to say, "Wilt thou?" That makes them wilt.

A GOOD PLACE TO LIVE.—Iowa is a magnificent place in which to live. There are ninety counties, only four of which are Democratic. Three counties at the late election did not poll a Democratic ballot, and one county gave a single Democratic vote.

EXCITING.—A married friend of ours says if he desires to see his wife look handsome, to have a crimson-mantled cheek, eye of fire and flow of speech, he gets the protograph of a female, sticks it in an envelope, and lets it "lie around loose" until she sees it.

PIANO MUSIC.—A proud and loving Missouri father thus sets forth the accomplishments of his daughter: "She can everlastingly paw ivory and howl like a mule." The doting parent wished to convey the impression that she excelled at the piano, and in singing.

FOR SALE.—A valuable Hotel property for sale, in Central City, with all the modern improvements. It is one of the best stands both for store and hotel in Central Pennsylvania. For further particulars apply at the office of the Bellefonte REPUBLICAN. n42tf.

A BUCK CAPTURED.—One day last week, Geo. Ronion, the proprietor of the "Big Spring Eating House," in company with Mr. Pence, went on a hunting excursion to the "Bear Meadows," and succeded in capturing a five pronged buck which, when dressed, weighed 197 pounds.

DON'T fail to hear the splendid lecture of Dr. John Lord on "The revival of Art."

WANT OF ENERGY.—Is one great cause of misfortune in business, as well as a neglect of household duties. The use of Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters," will effectually give tone and energy to the physical powers of the system, and remove lassitude. The Peruvian Bark contained in them, will also cure Ague.

PANARAMA OF LIVING TABLEAUX.—The Tableaux performers at Reynolds' Hall, last week for the benefit of the Episcopal Church of this place, were well gotten up and much admired by the spectators. The music furnished on the occasion by the Milesburg string band, was an excellent article. The exhibition, we learn netted the church a handsome sum.

REMARKABLE CASE.—We learn from the Mercer Dispatch that a german of that place experienced very severe pains in the bowels, from what he supposed to be inward piles. A doctor was called in, and upon examination, found a lead pencil six and three-fourth inches in length firmly lodged in the sacchated portion of the rectum, which he extracted. He had swallowed the pencil about the 1st of July last, when asleep.

CRUEL SPORT.—We learn from the Clinton Republican, whilst a party of boys in Flemington were shooting mark, a little son of Richard Krebs, aged about eleven years, approached the party with a desire to try his skill as a marksman, and the boys, hoping to have a little sport, over-charged the gun and handed it to the little urchin to shoot. The gun was fired and the little fellow knocked over, when it was discovered by the party that his arm had been broken and his face badly burned. He was taken home and cared for. Cruel sport!

Go to hear Dr. John Lord. Go to hear John Lord, D. D. Go to hear Dr. John Lord, D. D. L. L. D., at Reynolds' Hall, at Reynolds' Hall, on Tuesday evening, November 29th, for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A., of Bellefonte.

SCHEDULE CHANGE.—Our citizens, for ten days past, have been considerably excited over a proposed change about to be made in the Time Table of the Bald Eagle Valley R. R., by which, it is said, Bellefonte is to be left out in the cold.

Up to this time, we have said nothing about this change as we were perfectly satisfied, that the efficient Superintendent of the road, Mr. Wilkens, knew his business and would see that those who patronize his road should be accommodated.

Since the above was in type we learn that the proposed change went into effect on Monday last, and so far we think no one has cause of complaint. We hope our citizens will bear their souls in patience, feeling assured that Mr. Wilkens the gentlemanly Superintendent, will do all in his power, to accommodate our thriving young city and the inhabitants thereof.

JOHN LORD, D. D. L. L. D., who is engaged to deliver his brilliant lecture on "Michael Angelo," or, "The Revival of Art," in this place, on November 29, is one of the most interesting and fascinating lecturers in the field.

FARMING.—The first necessity of man is food; consequently food producers should rank well. In this country we need five farmers where we now have one. Men should learn to till the soil well, and make every acre largely productive. Nor should men be satisfied to raise corn, wheat, pork, beef, and butter for the market. Every farmer should raise all the fruit he needs, and if possible some for the market. Farmers should not be the mere drudges and intellectual dwarfs they now are. They should study chemistry, botany, and physiology that they may understand the nature of soils, plants, and the laws of health. Intelligence, not mere brute force, is required by the farmer. A man with culture will get as much profit from ten acres, as one without culture and knowledge will from fifty acres.—Young men of talent and culture should turn their attention to farming, and while elevating the vocation, acquire a generous support instead of shivering and starving around the outskirts of the overcrowded professions.

EATING SALOON.—It is a demonstrable fact that life is preserved and prolonged by the mastication of well prepared food. without food the fire would die out and the human engine cease to perform its usual functions.—Such being the case, those wishing to prolong and enjoy life, should avail themselves of the inducements held out by our friend George Ronion, proprietor of the Gymnasium, at the "Big Spring," who has in connection with his gymnasium established a first class saloon, where he is at all times ready to serve up to his customers and friends the freshest of oysters and all the delicacies of the season in a tasteful and exquisit style. George knows how to cater to the tastes of the public, and is always prepared to entertain his friends in tip-top style. He well deserves the extensive patronage of the public which he is receiving. For further particulars in regard to this favorite resorte, consult Ronion's advertisement in another column.

EVERYBODY that likes good things is going to hear Dr. John Lord's lecture on "The Revival of Art," yet there is room in Reynolds' Hall, and tickets for sale at Geo. W. Pattons.

TWO ENGINES.—We say Engines not "Ingens." We have two engines for sale, and we want to sell them. We offer them very low, with a hope that some person will come and buy. We have two engines. Three horse power. They were both built by H. D. Landis, Master Mechanic of the B. & S. R. R. Co. Mr. Landis has few, if any superiors as a mechanic. His work always recommends itself.

The one engine, has boiler and all the fixtures complete. Is in nearly as good condition as new, and is therefore in the best of running order. The other is entirely new, has never been in use. There is no boiler with this engine. They are both the same size, and we will give the purchaser the choice of either engine. The boiler will suit for either. Price for the two $450. Price for either with boiler $350.

HOW NOT TO BE BEAUTIFUL.—A vacant mind takes all the meaning out of the fairest face. A sensual disposition deforms the handsomest features.—A cold, selfish heart shrivels and distorts the best looks. A mean, groveling spirit takes all the dignity out of the figure and all the character out of the countenance. A cherished hatred transforms the most beautiful lineaments into an image of ugliness. It is as impossible to preserve good looks, with a brood of bad passions feeding on the blood, a set of low loves tramping through the heart and a selfish, disdainful spirit enthroned in the will, as to preserve the beauty of an elegant mansion with a litter of swine in the basement, a tribe of gipsies in the parlor, and owls and vultures in the upper part.

THE second lecture of the Season Course, given by the Young Men's Christian Association, of Bellefonte, will be delivered by Dr. John Lord, on Tuesday evening, November 29.

A PROFUSE and many times excessively offensive discharge from the nose, with "stopping up" of the nose at times, impairment of the sense of smell and taste, watering of weak eyes, impaired hearing, irregular appetite, occasional nausea, pressure and pain over the eyes, and at times in the back of the head, occasional chilly sensations, cold feet, and a feeling of lassitude and debility are symptoms which are common to Catarrh, yet all of them are not present in every case. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures Catarrh in its worst form and stages. It is pleasant to use and contains no poisonous or caustic drugs. Sent by mail on receipt of sixty cents. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y. A pamphlet sent free. Sold by druggists.

ANOTHER SHOW.—We call the attention of the reader to the advertisement of Withers & Evart's great Female Aggregation. This is said to be a first class troupe. It promises to give two of its unique Entertainments at Reynold's Opera House, in this place, on Wednesday Nov. 30th and Thursday December 1st, 1870. From what we can learn it is a first class troupe and would ask our fun loving community to call and see for themselves.

GRATIFYING.—The Old Fellows of Central Pennsylvania, and in fact all who are acquainted with Chaplain D. Townsend, of Columbus Lodge, Chambersburg, will be gratified to learn that he has recently been appointed one of the lecturers at large of the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. of Pennsylvania.

BROKE HIS LEG.—On last Monday week Lawrence Bathurst, who resides at Curtin's Forge, broke his leg and put an ankle out of joint while wrestling with James B. Curtin. Dr. Dorworth, of Howard, set the broken limb and Mr. Bathurst is doing as well as circumstances will permit.

DEDICATION.—The new Organ placed in the Reformed and Lutheran church at Zion by the Messrs Fisher Bros., will be dedicated on to-morrow (Thanksgiving) at ten o'clock a. m. Revs. D. M. Wolf, Miller, Williams and Lt. K. Evens, are expected to be present.

APPOINTED.—We learn from our exchanges, if they speak truly, that Governor Geary has appointed Gen. James A. Beaver, of this place, Major General of the 14th Division, comprising the counties of Centre, Huntingdon, Mifflin, and Juniata.

TANNERY.—The tannery of the Philipsburg Leather Company, at Philipsburg, commenced operations last week.

VALENTINES WORKS.—A few days since we had occasion to pass the Furnace, Forges and Rolling Mill of the Messrs Valentine & Co. This is one of the most enterprising firms in the State of Pennsylvania, and have done and are now doing more, to create a home market for the farmers of Centre County and to give employment to workingmen than any other establishment in the County or State. The old firm consisting of George Valentine, Abraham Valentine, Bond Valentine, Reuben Valentine and Wm. A. Thomas, trading under the firm name of Valentins & Thomas, were a blessing to the country, and hundreds of farmers to-day, in centre county will say, had it not been for the Home market furnishd by the old firm of Valentine & Thomas, and the numerous accomodations received from them, they would never have been able to pay for their farms and secured a comfortable and independent home.

The old firm has passed away. Its individual members have all gone to that "bourne whence no traveller returns;" but their virtuous deeds, their benevolent actions still live. These will never die. Their names, their good deeds, their unselfish and virtuous actions will never be forgotten, while their integrity, punctuality, honesty, virtue and enterprise have, like the mantle of Elisha, fallen upon the new or present firm consisting of Reuben Valentine, Geo. Valentine, A. S. Valentine, Robert Valentine, and M. T. Milliken, trading under the firm name of Valentines & Milliken. The men composing this firm may well and truly be called worthy sons of illustrious sires.—This new firm gives employment to from 350 to 450 men. They and their employees are soundly in favor of the doctrine of Protection for American labor. If free trade as advocated by the free trade league and the Democratic party were to succeed in this government, the Messrs Valentines & Milliken, as well as all the other furnaces, forges, rolling mills and manufactories of the Sate would be compelled to close—the working men, thousands upon thousands would be thrown out of employment and ruin, starvation and disaster would be the legitimate result.—For the last nine years through the legislation of a Republican Congress, we have had the highest tariff—known as the Morill tariff—with which this country has ever been favored. It was to this tariff, that we were indebted for our good times, during the continuance of the rebellion, more than to any other one cause, or to any other dozen of causes combined.

Under the Morill tariff all the Manufactories of the country, and as a consequence all the working men, prospered and flourished. The last Congress reduced the tariff on pig iron, and a few other articles; but the revenue taxes have also been reduced, so that things stand about as they did before. The last elections show that the Democratic party is in favor of free trade, while they also show that the people north, east, west and south are soundly in favor of a judicious protective tariff. The Democrats went into the campaign upon this issue and have lost, and now our manufacturers and business men feel hopeful, knowing that the Republican party—the friend of protection and American labor, is sure to rule the country for the next twenty years. In this view of the case they are putting forth all their energies, and to-day Messrs. Valentine & Milliken have a large stock of charcoal safely housed upon their premises, than they ever had prior to this time. This company has more than 300,000 bushels of charcoal in their coal houses at the furnace, forge and rolling mill, or sufficient to make 1,800 tons of pig iron.

This proves that they have unlimited confidence in the Republican party, the Administration of President Grant and in the Congress of the United States.—This firm deserve great credit for their enterprise, while we take the occasion to caution the working men of the country, not to trust the Democratic party, that is to-day nothing but the tool of the free trade League, and the hired minions of the English Government. Farmers, workingmen, mechanics of Pennsylvania, pause, reflect. Think before it is too late. Think before the time for another election comes around.—Think, think seriously, and if you have heretofore been acting and voting with the Democratic party, resolve that you will do so no more, that you will hereafter vote for American men and American measures.

Messrs Valentine & Milliken pay the cash to their hands every Saturday night.

A FAIR HIT.—Two wags passing out of town were struck with the beauties of High street.

"Whose place is that?" said one of them.

"That is the brick palace of P. G. Meek. Cost fifteen thousand dollars."

"What is his business?"

"Democratic member of the Legislature."

"What is his salary, and how long has he held his office?"

"Two years, at seven hundred dollars a year."

"Lord, what did the honest fellow do with the rest of his salary?"

"Bought a power Press and hired an editor to denounce corruption."

SUSPICIOUS.—There is suspicion to be attached to the moral condition of a young man who complains that nearly every night on returning home, he finds the key hole to the front door out of order.

ACCEPTED A CALL.—Rev. Dr. S. H. Mead, Rector of the Episcopal church, at Philipsburg, accepted a unanimous call to the diocese of New Jersy, and will enter on his new duties immediately.

COOL.—A writer says if he was challenged to fight a duel, he would suggest to his opponent that both should take poison, and then set down and play poker for the exclusive use of the stomach pump.

COME DOWN.—The price of meat has been reduced in some of our neighboring towns five to eight cents per pound. When will the consumer of meat in this place hear of a similar reduction?

TRUE.—A newspaper or two laid between a pair of sheets will keep a sleeper as warm or warmer than a pair of blankets. This may seem strange, but a trial will prove its correctness.

PRESENTED.—Miss Annie Spangler, of Centre Hall, one day last week, presented to the Engineers of the L. C. & S. C. Railroad, a set of colors for their sight poles.

VILLAINS.—We warn our readers to be on the look-out for traveling villains. On Monday last, two stout, able bodied men called at the residence of Daniel Rhoads, Esq., in this place, and rung the door bell. Mr. Rhoads being absent, Mrs. Rhoads came to the door. They demanded of her money. She offered them something to eat. This they refused. One of these villains was in his shirt sleeves. They demanded old clothes. Mrs. Rhoads told them she had none to give. In the meantime they were taking a survey of the windows and doors, showing plainly by their actions that they intended to return.

Mr. Joshua D. Mitchell who was working for Mr. Rhoads, came up out of the cellar and ordered them away. They cursed him, using the most blasphemous language and started off. After they got outside the gate one of the scoundrels pulled a coat from under his vest and gave it to his companion. They returned in a few moments, butupon being threatened by Mr. Mitchell, with the police, they left without doing any injury. We hope our people will be on their guard against these marauders, and in the meantime we would suggest to the Chief of Police, that he keep his eye out for such villains.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The new Time Table of the B. E. V. Railroad went into operation on last Monday the 21st inst. Passenger trains under the new schedule leave Bellefonte for Lock Haven at 10.45 a. m, and 8.00 p. m.: For Tyrone 11.25 a, m. and 3.15 p. m.—Trains leave Bellefonte for Milesburg at 8.00 a. m., 10. 45 a. m., 11.25 a. m., 2.00 p. m., 4.15 p, m., and 8.00 p. m.

BARGAINS.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Foster & Deving. These gentlemen have a most magnificent stock of fall and winter goods, which they propose to sell at reasonable rates for cash or country produce. They are clever men, and deserve the patronage of the Centre county people. It will pay to give them a call.

FISH POND.—We understand that Geo. Valentine and Reuben Valentine contemplate the erection of a fish pond in the splendid yard of the latter. We will have more to say when we see it BESSIMER BELL.—The M. E. Church at Philipsburg recently purchased a new Bessimer steel bell. It failed to give satisfaction, and was removed and a bell metal bell put in its place.

Col. Golladay, of the new-elected Democratic Congressman from Tennessee, served in the rebel army and was taken prisoner at Pittsburg Landing.

ACCIDENT.—Vincent Weise, who resides near Philipsburg, was kicked by a horse, that he was cleaning, on last Sunday week, which nearly proved fatal.

INDULGING.—Ed. Blanchard, Moses Thompson, Mr. Summerville, and other railroad men dined at Spangler's Hotel, at Centre Hall, one day last week.

JOHN LORD, D. D. L. L. D., is both interesting and instructive.

DIED.

On the 10th inst., at Beech Creek, Clinton county, Emma F., daughter of John and Julia A. McGee, aged 14 years, 9 months and 5 days.

The $12 Lever Watch, No 19,253, purchased from Chas. P. Norton & Co. 86 Nassau-street New-York, January 5th, has been carried by me over six months, with a total variation in time of only 25 seconds, with all the slight best regulating, and presents the same brilliancy of color as when purchased.

New-York, July 30th, 1870.

I have for the past eight months, constantly used one of the $12 Norton, Oride Gold Lever Watches, manufactured by Chas. P. Norton & Co. 86 Nassau-Street, New-York, and found the total variation in its time but one half minute, (30 seconds), and it retains the same appearance of gold as when purchased. Several of our men use them with the same results. I therefore recommend them for correctness and wear.

The Five Dollar Sewing Machine purchased by me, January, 1866, from the Family Sewing Machine Company, 86 Nassau-Street, N. Y. has been in almost constant use ever since. It has not been out of order once. Has cost nothing for repairs, and I find it simple and reliable in operation, and always ready to sew. Those friends of mine who use them with the new improvements are very much pleased. The one I have I would not part with.

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERG'S.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now completo connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

People who travel by other routes, and also peoplewho, instead of traveling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest price.

Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality.

RANGING FROM $6,50 to $15,00

—the very best.

Medical.

MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation—

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lackjustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption! The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

The Great Medical Discovery!

Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing the combined merits of all the best Bitters, thus forming a perfect Remedy for all diseases of the Digestive Organs, Constipation of the Bowels, Inflammation of the Liver, and all its Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors Doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.
